

The people of New Jersey like their more stringent "do not call" list. Hard working people do not want to be constantly harassed by telemarketers in the sanctity of their own homes. It would behoove you to strengthen the federal "do not call" list, not weaken New Jerseys.